

CORY JENKS

PERMISSION TO CARE

Building a Healthcare Culture
That Thrives in Chaos

CLICK HERE for Book Info, Media Page, and Headshots

#1 AMAZON NEW RELEASE

Bio

Cory Jenks earned his doctor of pharmacy degree from the University of South Carolina in 2011. Since then, he has practiced as a retail pharmacist, outpatient clinical pharmacist, and inpatient clinical pharmacist. He currently is a practicing clinical pharmacist—and improv comedian. Cory travels the country teaching healthcare professionals how to apply the valuable skills of improv comedy to create a more adaptable, empathetic, and humanizing healthcare experience for both patients and providers. Cory lives in Tucson, Arizona, with his wife, Cassie, their two children, and ten chickens.

Questions to Ask Cory

- ▶ What got you interested in improv comedy?
- ▶ What was the frustration you were experiencing as a pharmacist, and how did improv help change that?
- ▶ How can the lessons of improv can make customer experiences better?
- ▶ Can you give examples of how improv training helped you take care of your patients?
- ▶ How do you find the time to have a side hustle when you work a full-time career?
- ▶ How can you build and retain high-performing teams within your organization?
- ▶ What is Permission to Care, and why did you decide to write this book?
- ▶ What is one improv takeaway our listeners can start using today?

Fun Facts

- ▶ Permission to Care has achieved #1 New Release on Amazon
- ▶ Voted 'Most Athletic' in Pharmacy School Class
- ▶ Enjoys harvesting rainwater and raising chickens
- ▶ Holds the unofficial NCAA College Football record for most field goals caught by a fan in a game with 3
- ▶ Started improv career in 2013 and since has performed, coached, taught, and ran the comedy school at the Tucson Improv Movement Theater in Tucson, AZ

CORY JENKS
cory@improvr.com
mandalatreepress.com

